

2020 PRESERVATION AWARD NOMINATION

Deadline: Friday, November 1, 5 p.m.

Please use this form to nominate a project, person, firm, or organization that has made a positive impact on historic preservation in Long Beach.

Award recipients range widely, from projects (historic structures, landscapes, even new infill) to studies, craftsmanship, and exhibits. For details, visit the Preservation Award nomination page on our website.

To be eligible, projects:

- ✧ Must be located in the City of Long Beach
- ✧ Should conform to the Secretary of Interior's Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties
- ✧ Should be completed within one year prior to submission

Please complete this form fully and legibly, and submit it by Friday, November 1, 2019:

- ✧ By email to preservation@lbheritage.org
- ✧ By mail to Long Beach Heritage, PO Box 92521, Long Beach, CA 90809

An independent jury of preservationists and architects will review nominations and select the most representative examples. We will announce the award recipients by the end of the year and present them at a celebration on Thursday, March 19, 2020.

If you have any questions, please contact us at preservation@lbheritage.org or (562) 493-7019. Good luck!

Award Category (check one)

- Preservation Award – project that exemplifies the best in historic preservation in Long Beach (see website for details)
- Preservationist of the Year – person who has demonstrated a sustained commitment to the preservation movement and Long Beach’s cultural heritage
- Excellence in Architecture – architect or architectural firm whose work has had an outstanding influence on Long Beach’s built environment

Please nominate in any of these categories, but note that in a given year, we typically honor either Preservationist of the Year or Excellence in Architecture, not both.
